Youth detention centre OPERATIONAL POLICY

Title: YD-4-2 Youth detention – Search of a young person

Policy statement

Any search of a young person must be actioned in strict compliance with the requirements of the Youth Justice Regulation 2016 and the Human Rights Act 2019.

Youth detention centres (YDCs) will ensure:

- search procedures and requirements are explained to young people during the induction process on admission
- searches of young people are undertaken only when reasonable and justifiable grounds exist for the search
- the safety, wellbeing and human rights of young people is paramount and security considerations cannot override or expose the young person to a search type that may be detrimental to their safety, wellbeing or human rights
- the reasonable grounds for conducting a search are explained to the young person
- the appropriate search is conducted commensurate to the level of risk assessed
- all searches are approved by a delegated officer authorised to approve that particular search type, prior to the search being conducted
- any search of a young person is conducted as quickly as reasonably possibly, with regard to their rights, dignity, privacy and trauma history
- body worn cameras are not operational or worn whilst conducting or supporting a partially clothed search of a young person
- records are created of the search that are compliant with the requirements of the Youth Justice Regulation 2016.

Principles

1. Search types

1.1 When reasonable grounds exist, a young person may be subject to a:

- wand search – a young person remains clothed and is searched with a hand-held metal detector or ion scanner (only a young person's hands come into contact with the ion scanner)
- clothed search – a young person remains clothed but is asked to remove their shoes and empty and turn-out their pockets, then staff use a pat-down technique to search the young person
- partially clothed search – does not involve touching the young person, it searches their upper and lower body, permitting the young person to remain partially clothed (i.e. upper body remains clothed while their lower body is searched and vice versa) - completely unclothed searches of a young person are strictly prohibited
- cavity search – involves the visual, manual or instrument inspection of a young person's body cavities by a medical professional.

- 1.2 A young person's belongings or any unidentified substance that is found or surrendered during a search may be subject to an ion scan.

2. Mandatory requirements for search process

In seeking to undertake a search of a young person, YDC operational staff must:

- 2.1 undertake a risk assessment
- 2.2 seek appropriate approval from an authorised officer before conducting the search, unless a standing approval applies (refer to section 4 below)
- 2.3 ensure the staff member searching the young person is the same sex as the young person, unless the young person identifies as transgender or intersex (transgender and intersex young people must be asked to nominate the sex of the staff member that they feel most comfortable searching them<sup>1</sup>)
- 2.4 conduct the search in a manner consistent with legislation, this policy and the procedures outlined in chapter 4 – security management - Youth detention centre operations manual
- 2.5 record all searches in DCOIS.

3. Risk assessment to inform search decision

- 3.1 When determining whether a search is required, YDC operational staff must undertake a risk assessment of the situation and the individual young person to establish a level of risk.
- 3.2 This assessed level of risk will determine if a search should be conducted; and if one is required, the type of search commensurate to the level of risk assessed.
- 3.3 To do this, YDC operational staff should consider the following:

4. Routine searches

73(2)

5. Health and safety considerations

5.1 When conducting a search, YDC staff must take due care to protect themselves to minimise exposure to potential risk from infection and concealed articles.

5.2 When conducting a search, YDC staff must:

- use appropriate first aid safety equipment (i.e. gloves)
- maintain an awareness of their position relative to the young person throughout the duration of the search
- monitor the young person closely to detect any potential hostile or non-compliant behaviours
- use safe search practices as outlined in chapter four of the Youth Detention Centre Operations Manual and associated training materials to avoid injuries and infection from concealed articles.

6. Considerations for transgender and intersex young people

6.1 Transgender and intersex young people must be asked to nominate the sex of the staff member they feel most comfortable searching them for clothed and partially clothed searches.

6.2 The young person's nominated preference must be documented in DCOIS.

6.3 YDC staff may decline to search a transgender or intersex young person of the opposite sex without being subject to disciplinary action. Reasonable and timely enquiry should be taken to locate an appropriate staff member of the sex requested by the young person.

6.4 If a staff member of the requested sex is unavailable or not willing to undertake a search, the young person must be managed in a way that maintains regular observations to ensure the young person's safety, and the safety of the centre and others until such time as a search by an appropriate person can be facilitated. This may mean being placed temporarily in a camera room and/or on behavioural observations.

- 6.5 YDC casework staff should continue to have conversations about searches with the young person and ask whether the preference they nominated (for the sex of the detention youth worker searching them) continues to be their preference.
- 6.6 If a young person changes their mind about their preference (of the sex of the staff member they have nominated to search them) any search about to take place should cease. Any change of preference must be recorded on DCOIS immediately.

7. Reasonable force to conduct a search

73(2)

8. Recordkeeping

- 8.1 All searches must be recorded on DCOIS and must include the risk assessment and justification for the search.

<sup>2</sup> In accordance with policy YD3-8: Use of separation in response to an incident.

8.4 For partially clothed searches the shift supervisor must:

- create an ad-hoc young person search record in the relevant log
- detail the risk assessment and justification for the search and any special instructions.

8.6 Staff must follow the additional guidance noted in chapter four of the Youth Detention Centre Operations Manual in relation to record keeping for searches of young people.

Objectives

The department has a legislative responsibility to ensure that YDCs are safe and secure environments.

Searches are a risk reduction strategy that assist in the elimination and control of items in a YDC environment that have the potential to cause harm to people and/or property. Searches also contribute to the security management of a YDC.

Accordingly, this policy identifies the types of searches that can be conducted of a young person in youth detention and regulates the way that searches are to be conducted.

Scope

This policy applies to young people sentenced or remanded in a YDC.

This policy is part of a suite of policies and processes developed to support the safe and secure operations of YDCs and is to be read in conjunction with:

- Policy YD-2-1: Admission of a young person
- Policy YD-4-1: Management of restricted and prohibited articles
- Policy YD-4-4: Retention and disposal of evidence relevant to an incident
- Chapter 4: Security Management, Youth Detention Centre Operations Manual.

Roles and responsibilities

- Unit manager and shift supervisor:
  - use professional judgement to assess the level of risk that exists to determine whether reasonable and justifiable grounds exist for a young person to be searched
  - demonstrate a duty of care to any young person who is searched, ensuring the search is recorded on DCOIS.
- ED:
  - determine whether reasonable grounds exist to authorise a cavity search by a medical practitioner
  - ensure that any medical practitioner required to conduct a cavity search on a young person understands their responsibilities under section 26 of the Youth Justice Regulation 2016
  - ensure YDC operational staff receive appropriate training in search practices
  - ensure staff understand obligations under this policy
  - contribute to policy reviews.
- Director, Statewide Intel and Secure Services Support:
  - review and update the induction booklet as required
  - review and update policy as required
  - provide practice advice to support compliance with this policy
- Director, Learning and Development:
  - ensure training content complies with relevant policies and procedures.
- Training Team:
  - contribute to policy and procedure reviews as required.

| YDC operational staff | A staff member who has direct care responsibility for young people, for example a detention youth worker or section supervisor.   |

Human rights compatibility statement

Youth Justice is committed to respecting, protecting and promoting human rights. Under the Human Rights Act 2019, Youth Justice has an obligation to act and make decisions in a way that is compatible with and properly considers human rights. When making a decision about the care and management of young people, decision-makers must comply with that obligation.

Multicultural Queensland Charter

Youth Justice supports the Multicultural Queensland Charter, established under the Multicultural Recognition Act 2016 (Qld). The Charter seeks to promote Queensland as a unified, harmonious and inclusive community.

Child safe standards

The Royal Commission into Institutionalised Responses to Child Sexual Abuse developed several national child safe standards for institutions and organisations working with children. Youth Justice is cognisant of these standards when considering operational practice guidelines and service delivery in community and youth detention centres.

State disability plan

Youth Justice will work with our partners to build a fairer, more inclusive Queensland where people with a disability, their families and carers are able to access the same opportunities, on the same basis as everyone else. We will take actions to progress the priorities of the All Abilities Queensland opportunities for all state disability plan and support improved access to services for Queenslanders with disability.

RTI RELEASE

Section 3: Personal, area and vehicle searches

Key messages

- A risk assessment must be conducted to ascertain if, and what type, of search is needed.
- There must be reasonable grounds for conducting a search.
- Staff must have the required approval before conducting searches, unless a standing authority applies.
- All searches, including the justification for the search, must be recorded appropriately in DCOIS and on all registers.
- Personal searches must be conducted as quickly as reasonably possible, with regards to the young person's dignity and privacy.

3.1 Personal searches

This section is to be read in conjunction with policy YD-4-2: Search of a young person.

The Youth Justice Regulation 2016 provides for personal searches of young people. Types of personal searches include:

73(2)

- partially clothed searches – a search of a young person that does not involve touching the young person and searches their upper and lower body, permitting the young person to remain partially clothed (i.e. upper body remains clothed while their lower body is searched and vice versa). Completely unclothed searches of a young person are strictly prohibited (section 26 of the Youth Justice Regulation 2016)

Any unidentified substance that is found or surrendered during a search may be subject to an ion scan.

Conducting or supporting staff must turn off and remove their body worn cameras (BWCs) during a partially clothed search or prior to providing reasonably necessary help to a medical practitioner during a cavity search. During these search practices, the BWC must be:

- left with a staff member
- secured in a lockable room, or
- placed securely in the zip closure pocket of the BWC vest.

Once a young person has been searched, they are not permitted to move back to the same area until it is searched. This removes the possibility of a young person retrieving restricted, prohibited or illegal articles they may have hidden before their search.

3.1.1 Mandatory requirements for personal searches

When considering a search of a young person, the following steps must be followed.

3.1.2 Overview of risk assessment process

Decisions about whether reasonable grounds exist to search a young person must be made on a case-by-case basis. Searches must never be undertaken as an automatic procedure. The safety and wellbeing of young people is paramount and security considerations cannot override or expose the young person to a search type that may be detrimental to their safety or wellbeing.

s49 sch4

To assess whether reasonable ground exist for a search, operational staff (and specifically officers authorised to approve searches) must consider the following risks:

s49 sch4

Once all risk factors have been considered, YDC operational staff should use their professional judgement to assign a risk level, using the diagram below as a guide.

Level of risk assessed

Additional risk factors to consider are noted throughout the following sections of this chapter for each search type.

Ultimately, the decision about the risk level is a matter of professional judgement made on a case-by-case basis. Every situation will be different, and the table above is a guide only. Any item (e.g. a rock, stick from a tree, broken plastic sleeve of a pen) in the possession of a young person with intent to harm (someone else, themselves or property) could be dangerous.

Staff must record all of the risks identified in the circumstances to justify the decision made about the most appropriate search.

3.1.3 Communicating with young people about and during searches

You must use plain and simple language when talking to a young person about searches. Consider the young person's individual circumstances including:

- cultural differences
- language differences
- age
- development
- trauma
- ability/disability
- cognitive functioning
- general level of comprehension.

Explain the search process to the young person before, during and after the search to alleviate any fears they may have.

3.1.4 Young people who identify as transgender, non-binary or intersex

Transgender, non-binary and intersex young people must be asked to nominate the sex of the staff member they feel most comfortable searching them for clothed and partially clothed searches on a search preference consent form. The young person's nominated preference must be recorded in DCOIS.

If a staff member of the requested sex is unavailable or not willing to undertake a search, the young person must be managed in a way that maintains regular observations to ensure their safety.

If a young person changes their mind about the preference of the sex of the staff member they have nominated to search them, any search about to take place should stop. The young person should be supported and helped to complete a new search preference consent form as a matter of priority.

Any change of information must be provided expediently to all relevant staff, including operational staff responsible for searching the young person and the multidisciplinary team.

3.1.5 Use of reasonable force to conduct a personal search

73(2)

3.1.7 Partially clothed searches

Key principles

- A partially clothed search must never be conducted in a manner that involves the removal of all of the young person's clothing at the same time.
- Staff are not permitted to touch the young person. A young person's non-compliance with a search is dealt with as a refusal to obey staff direction.
- Conducting and supporting staff must turn off and remove their BWC during any partially clothed search.
- At least two staff members must be present during the search.
- At least one staff member should be of the same sex as the young person, or the nominated sex (if the young person identifies as transgender, non-binary or intersex) and must assure the young person that privacy and dignity will be maintained.
- If possible, when the young person being searched identifies as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander the staff member performing the search should also identify as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander.
- A young person must not be ordered to partly undress in the presence of a person of the opposite sex, unless the young person is transgender, non-binary or intersex and they have nominated that sex.
- The staff member of the same sex as the young person, or the nominated sex (if the young person is transgender, non-binary or intersex) must stand where they can directly observe the young person. If the second staff member is of the opposite sex they must stand where they can directly observe the first staff member but not the young person.
- Staff must maintain a high level of sensitivity throughout the search procedure. Due regard must be given to privacy, vulnerability, possibility of prior sexual abuse and history of trauma and cultural differences of young people. It is important that opportunities to maintain self-respect and dignity are maximised for all young people.
- If a female young person is menstruating at the time of the partially clothed search, they are still required to remove their underwear.

Steps for conducting the search

|----------------------------|---|
| Step 1: Assess risk | Officers delegated to approve partially clothed searches must consider all risk factors (in accordance with the guidance provided in section 3.1.2 in this chapter) when determining whether a search will proceed. Officers delegated to approve partially clothed searches must approve the form in DCOIS after undertaking the risk assessment. Wherever possible, other strategies that may reduce the need to conduct partially clothed searches should be considered first. Below are questions that may be used to ascertain whether there are reasonable grounds to conduct partially clothed searches in each of those circumstances. The questions are guidelines for staff and do not cover every possible scenario. s49 sch4 |

- ask the young person to open their mouth, look into the mouth, under the tongue and dental prosthesis if any
- ask the young person to run their fingers around the teeth and gums and between the teeth
- direct the young person to turn their head to each side and to pull ears forward
- direct young person to remove their upper layer of clothing and place it on a flat surface
- search the removed items as quickly as possible in the presence of the young person, paying close attention to pockets, linings, seams and facings
- direct the young person to move their hands out to the side of the body with fingers spread
- check hands for restricted, prohibited or illegal articles
- direct the young person to raise their arms so that it is possible to check armpits
- visually inspect the top half of the young person's body
- direct young person to put on upper clothing (one layer only)

Lower body phase of search

- direct the young person to remove their lower layer of clothing including underwear and footwear and place on a flat surface
- search all removed items of clothing and footwear in the presence of the young person, paying particular attention to pockets, linings, seams and facings
- conduct the search of clothing as quickly as possible while making sure that the search is thorough, so that the young person can be searched and have clothing returned as soon as possible
- visually inspect the lower half of the young person's body, including between the toes and soles of the feet
- check lower half of body for restricted, prohibited or illegal articles
- direct the young person to put on their lower layer of clothing
- allow young person to put on all remaining clothing and return any other items the young person is permitted to have.

If no items are discovered, the staff members must return the clothing to the young person. The exception to this is on admission, when the young person's clothing will be laundered and they will be provided centre issued clothing.

The search must be conducted as quickly as reasonably practicable and the young person must be allowed to dress as soon as the search is finished. The young person should be thanked for cooperating.

If restricted, prohibited or illegal articles are found, complete an occurrence report in DCOIS and observe evidence procedures outlined in section 1 and section 6 of this chapter.

The shift supervisor must notify the operations manager if restricted and/or prohibited articles are found.

|------------------------------|--|
| Step 4: Recordkeeping | All partially clothed searches performed on a young person must be logged in DCOIS. The shift supervisor creates the ad-hoc young person search, detailing if the search is to be partially clothed. The shift supervisor determines which log the search should be recorded in.<sup>5</sup> The shift supervisor will detail the risk assessment and justification for the search on the activity and any special instructions. They will also detail the young person to be searched and the date for the search. The search record should be marked as mandatory so that any cancellation of the record will need a shift supervisor to cancel the record before the log can be closed. This will add another indicator to the shift supervisor that the search was not completed. The shift supervisor approves the partially clothed search by setting its status to approved. The search is marked as complete when recording is finished. |
